

Irish Negotiations To Come to Crisis In Next Few Days

New Note From George
Expected to Offer Discussion on Sovereignty
at Conference.

LETTER TO CONCLUDE LONG CORRESPONDENCE

Hopes Are Dampened by the Speech of Winston Churchill, Saying Limit
Offer Has Been Reached.

By RALPH H. TURNER,
United News Staff Correspondent.
London, September 25.—Within the week, the question of whether there will be an Irish peace conference or a return to former conditions of active hostility, will have been decided.

Hope is still strong that the conference will be held, in spite of the somewhat dampening effect of a week-end speech by Winston Churchill, who declared that the government "will not yield an inch on the supreme issue of Ireland's allegiance to the king."

"We have reached the end of our letter," he declared. "Our offer goes to the utmost limits possible.
If it is rejected, we have nothing else to give."

The speech aroused the greatest attention and was viewed in the light of a semi-official statement, inasmuch as Churchill had just come from the discussions at Darloch.

The Foreign Crisis.

It has become manifest, therefore, that the government's reply to De Valera will bring the lengthy correspondence to a climax.

Those who are usually well informed predict that the new note will reaffirm the government's refusal to recognize the Sinn Fein delegation as representing a sovereign state, but perhaps offering to discuss the actual status of the delegates at the conference. The date of the proposed meeting, it is understood, will be suggested as October 4.

It is still apparent, however, that some difference of opinion exists in the cabinet, one section remaining adamant on the demand that the Irish leader repudiate the idea of a republic entirely before the Irish delegates are admitted to the conference, and the other urging that the invitation be repeated without conditions, but stating merely that the government declines to discuss the question of separation.

Chance to Accept.

With both press and public refusing to recognize the possibility of failure, on the part of the conference, with no alternative held, it seems likely that the note will not demand
a clear repudiation of the sovereign-cy claim beforehand. This would give De Valera the chance to accept the invitation with support of his people.

Unless the cabinet succeeds in altering or suppressing the present tentative drafts, it is probable that the reply will be sent to Dublin on Tuesday.

It is reported in London that Lloyd-George has been sending out signals that general election will be held in the event of a breakdown in the negotiations, in order to bring his colleagues around to his own policies on the Irish question.

"Two voices have counselled the premier," says the Sunday Express.
"But with the Irish on the brink of war there is a third voice—that of the British public—which is more than either, and which declares it will not be satisfied with the reintroduction of repressive measures in Ireland until a conference has been held."

PRISONERS REBEL
IN INTERNMENT CAMP.

Cork, September 25.—A serious situation has arisen in the Spike Island internment camp, where several hundred members of the Irish republican army are held, as a result of the prisoners' protests against the quality of food served them.

The prisoners refused to carry out order, whereupon the military forces over them retaliated by removing their best clothing, and punishing them with rifles and bayonets. Twenty-eight stabbings are reported, and several beatings are said to have been administered to some of the interned men. Several prisoners are reported to have escaped during the night.

A minor conflict has occurred between auxiliaries and members of the republican police force, the auxiliaries attempting to throw their "chessies" into the river. One republican was stabbed in the arm
in the fray.

DEATH STALKS
IN BELFAST STREETS.

Belfast, September 25.—The weekend terror in Belfast with casualties steadily mounting continued Sunday night.

The most sanguinary incident occurred when an Orange crowd threw a bomb into a Catholic crowd. A member of the latter picked up the missle and flung it back, the explosion killing two Orangemen outright and injuring 10 other persons.

Two of the wounded died later in a hospital, making the death toll
for this incident alone 12.

Five persons were wounded by the explosion of a bomb in the York road area.

and Saturday nights the contend-

ARBUCKLE HEARING ENTERS THIRD DAY

Dr. Beardslee, Back From Hunting Trip, Star Witness Today—Women
Guests to Testify.

San Francisco, September 25.—Fatty Arbuckle Monday will face the third day of his preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Virginia Rappe, beautiful Los Angeles movie actress—a unusually long time for a preliminary hearing to drag out in a California court.

The third day was expected by the prosecution to produce new and damaging evidence against the big film star. Dr. Arthur Beardslee, house physician of the St. Francis hotel, who was first called to treat Miss Rappe when she became hysterical at the notorious Arbuckle Labor day gin jollification party, was slated to give his first testimony in open court on the nature of Miss Rappe's injuries.

The state claims this evidence will greatly strengthen its case against the comedian. However, the defense also has contended Dr. Beardslee's testimony would be favorable to Arbuckle.

The St. Francis physician had been on a hunting trip since shortly after the fatal party, and was inaccessible to attorneys and their investigators working on the case.

Arbuckle Sunday entered his third week in prison facing trial for murder.

Two weeks ago Saturday he and M. Friedman, who paid $1,000 for the honor, came to the Alcatraz, the first to enter the building followed by Mayor Key, Rabbi Marx and the officers, including Joel Dorfan, president of the congregation.

M. Lichtenstein presided at the ceremonies and made an introductory talk, in which he reviewed the history of the congregation. He said many years ago when Atlanta was but a small town a small number of Orthodox Jews came to Atlanta as a colony of refuge.

These were so-called aliens at that time, but they are all true American citizens now," he said. "They came to Atlanta and to Georgia."

The only bright spot in Arbuckle's

Rea Says Road Will Exercise the Right to Deal With Employees Without Intervention.

Philadelphia, September 25.—The optimist Boyd P. Doty, fresh from the anti-saloon league headquarters at Westerville, Ohio, here to establish the New England legal department of the league, has discovered that Boston is already "dry."

Doty has been in town three days and declares that at that time he hasn't heard a single case where he hasn't seen anyone under the influence of booze and he hasn't even smelled it on anyone's breath.

In short, Boston is closer to the realization of the heavenly state

than any large city passed through by Mr. Doty since prohibition came.

And now Bostonians, while surprised and pleased to hear such things said about their city

by an outsider, are trying to figure

just where Doty has spent his time.

It has been suggested that he spent most of it in one of the local churches, retiring at an early hour, and this is generally accepted as the most likely explanation.

The overworked cops can't see it, either. Those of the central station

arrested 92 men between daylight

Saturday and daylight Sunday, and booked them as "D. K." which is police for drunk enough to be pinched.

And there are eight other police stations here, some of which had to crowd the cells to the bar to accommodate inebriated guests. The total for the week-end piles up into the hundreds.

Federal prohibition enforcement

agents can here and there chasing boozes all night, encountering much that Doty missed, while Registrar

of Motor Vehicles Frank R. Goodwin

broke all records for one day by revoking 36 license of automobile

arrested while driving under liquor's influence.

Still the spirit of the house that got by

Doty was found about 8 o'clock

Saturday morning when the East Dead-ham street cops took 17 couples

from a South End hotel to the station house, when each and they were doing so far away from their respective homes.

From Governor Harry L. Davis,
Ohio:

"I strongly believe that we and all other nations should take every possible step that will prevent future wars. But I am of the emphatic opinion that the United States should not limit its defensive strength until and unless the other nations take similar action."

From Louisiana Governor:

"World peace depends upon two things: First, honest agreements to maintain peace; second, ability to guard against treacherous breaches of these agreements. Whatever limitation is agreed upon should be of such a character as to not take away from strong and righteous nations the power to protect the weak

or to defend themselves against aggression. The basis of limitation should be national safety."

From Governor J. A. O. Praim, of Minnesota:

"Limitation of armaments is absolutely essential if our people are to get relief from already too high assurances that we are safe from attack before we reduce our means of defense."

From Governor B. W. Olcott, of Oregon:

"I believe President Harding's move, if successful, will be one of the most momentous accomplishments in the history of the world and as a citizen of the United for which a permanent remedy must be sought in the opinion of experts. The subject is an economic one and conditions are to be started on a firm foundation toward betterment.

Emergency Measures.

Emergency measures, of course, will occupy much of the time of the conference, such as establishment of a nation-wide employment service under control of the government, making arrangements for employment and effecting an understanding with employers whereby they make a reduction in working hours of their present employees, and the permit of a corresponding increase in the number that can be employed. On the whole, the idea is that it would be better for the business to have more men to work shorter hours and therefore at less pay than to have those now employed work longer hours at their present pay, while thousands of their fellows go without food because they can't get em.

The success of the conference, it is stated, will depend entirely upon the willingness of capital, as well as labor, to face the situation as it is, and to help in the solution of it, and add to the circulation of money by effecting arrangements whereby more men can call at the cashier's window on pay day.

No Excuse for Religious Intolerance, Says Pastor

The necessity for the pulpit commenting from the religious standpoint on the news of the day, and the danger arising from the religious intolerance manifested in Atlanta, were stressed in a sermon delivered Sunday at St. Luke's Episcopal church, by Rev. C. B. Wilmer.

The pastor stated that every news topic of a broad human interest has as much as well as a spiritual angle from which it may be viewed, and that while the pulpit has no business dealing in personalities, it must show how religious principles are to be applied to secular affairs.

In regard to religious intolerance he cited the recent resolution passed by council calling upon The New York World and other papers to investigate the alleged oath taken by the nights of Columbus; declared that it had been proven spurious, and that council should have ascertained this fact before passing such a paper.

Dr. Wilmer's Sermon.

Taking as his subject "The News papers and the Kingdom of God" he used for his text Philippians 1:9-10: "And this I pray that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offense unto the day of Christ."

His sermon follows:

The daily newspapers and the weekly and monthly magazines lay before us continuously for our mental pastime a consideration of world, the flesh and the devil, with some bias here and there of the Kingdom of God. What is the effect of this? What is the result? It is in the minds of men and women, boys and girls to the printed page?

For this reason concretely before you let me give you an extract of just one, the front, of Saturday's Constitution:

"There is a good deal of discussion about the 'most important news of the day' for good and evil, and the devil, and the Kingdom of God. What is the effect of this? What is the result? It is in the minds of men and women, boys and girls to the printed page?"

The Atlanta Constitution Insurance Offer

In offering insurance protection for death or disability due to accidents to all of its readers, The Atlanta Constitution believes that it is extending a benefit, the value of which is at once obvious. Accidents are a daily occurrence in Atlanta. Travel on street cars and other forms of public conveyance, and in private automobiles, is constantly attended by danger. The evidence of that danger is a subject of daily news reports. Scarce-ly a day passes without an account of one or more such accidents, dealing death or injury. For death or total or partial disability, suffered in such accidents, insurance benefits are provided by The Atlanta Constitution for its readers.

This insurance offer is not a premium for a thirty or sixty or ninety day subscription. It is every-day protection for regular readers, old or new. It continues in force for every reader, if he registers, as long as he continues a reader of The Atlanta Constitution during the life of the policy which is sent to him.

The Atlanta Constitution believes that regular reading of The Atlanta Constitution from day to day, is full profit in itself. Its policy is to give its readers a full day's portion of news and information and enjoyment. The offer of this insurance adds nothing to the regular cost of the paper, creates no extra liability on the part of the reader, and has no strings tied to it. The sole desire is to give regular readers of The Atlanta Constitution the benefit of protection for which every citizen of Atlanta has need.

Let a Constitution route carrier deliver you The Atlanta Constitution every day and take advantage of this opportunity to get Travel Accident Insurance for one year. A small delivery charge.

RESULTS DEMANDED.

On the floor of the senate the other day Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, expressed the sentiments of the rank and file of the citizens of this country when he said that the time has come when the republican congress must either get down to business and show some results or else prepare for an upheaval at the ballot box.

"The American people," he said, addressing the republican side of the senate chamber—want more work and less play; more results and fewer recommendations; more real tickets and fewer broad lines; more prosperity and fewer poorhouses."

For more than six months the government has been manned by republicans in every branch and department, from top to bottom.

It has been in absolute control of a party which was put into power upon the strength of solemn promises which have not been fulfilled!

Congress has virtually frittered away more than half a year at a crucial time in the history of the nation; and the people are becoming tired of it!

Following the summer recess the house has another period of marking time before it while waiting for the senate to catch up with legislation that ought to have been disposed of weeks or months ago.

Now, Senator Borah serves notice that he is going to "fight to a finish" against ratification of the German treaty, which means more weeks of spouting and uncalled-for "debate" and loss of time.

The country is restive for results; it wants action, not talk!

And if the republicans do not profit by the unmistakable signs of the times—signs that are visible in all parts of the country—they may as well set it down that they have a sad day of reckoning ahead, and not very far ahead at that!

THE BOOSTING WAGON.

The Commerce (Ga.) News

hears the merry music of "the boosting wagon," and says—"Let's get on!"

It is time to "celebrate"—the prosperity at hand in the most effective way to "get out of the dumps" for good and all and advertise good times.

Here is the viewpoint of the Commerce paper, expressed in its "honey" hearty way—

With a full half crop in this section and a bale of cotton bringing one hundred dollars, not including the seed, it's no time to take a rope and go to the woods. Get on the boosting band wagon! Times have been just a little hard during recent months, but we have made them all the harder by taking hard times. Let the pendulum swing back. Let's all talk good times. Banish the blues. Quit fussing and go to singing. Smile. Kiss your wife. Pay your debts!"

That is a pretty good home prosperity program and, if lived up to, it will help the country all along the line.

Since good times not only furnishes the text, but preaches the singing sermon, it's time for a general chorus of "Amen!"

There's the best reason in the world now for banishing the last vestige of "the hard times blues" and singing the good times song.

After all, Lloyd-George's greatest ambition is to be a successful doorkeeper.

Ireland is always on hand with the wedge that splits the British cabinet.

That old standby, "The Balkan War Cloud," is trying to put one over again.

Very many congressmen were glad to get back to Washington. The home-weather was decidedly too hot for them.

As stated, the Prince of Wales will take 25,000 bottles of wine with him to India, why should he want to hunt for "tigers"?

An accomplished fisherman lost his way recently trying to locate a pond where a bullfrog was calling, "jug-o-rum! jug-o-rum!"

In planning buildings of this nature the original cost is a matter of secondary consideration.

The main things to be considered are the health, comfort and physical security of the human lives to be housed within them.

Any difference in original cost of construction will be more than offset by the minimized outlay for maintenance, repairs and replacements.

And this is true not only of school buildings, but of all other construction.

THE BOY AND THE FINE.

Recently a dozen boys ranging in age from 10 to 14 years, were haled before Judge Ralph Reeve, of the juvenile court, Boston, charged with trespassing and criminal mischief incidental to loitering.

It was another instance in proof of the old maxim about the devil's finding work for idle hands; and during the trial it was evident that there were varying degrees of guilt, and the "ringleaders" of the boy "gang" were fined $5 and the others $2 each.

But the court departed here from the beaten path of precedent, and, realizing that the boys had no money, and that usually in such cases when fines are imposed it is the parent and not the boy himself who has to pay, he stipulated that each boy earn for himself and by his own honest efforts the money with which to square himself with the law. At the same time Judge Reeve admonished the parents of the boys not to render their erring sons any assistance whatever, and he gave the lads eight days in which to produce the money in court. The judge also directed that each boy start a bank account in his own name, and with money earned by himself, and at stated intervals during a specified period submit his bank book to the probation officer for inspection, the idea being to instill in the mind of each youngster an appreciation of the value of habits of thrift and industry.

"The American people," he said, addressing the republican side of the senate chamber—

TWO LIVES ENDED IN TUNNEL CRASH

Double-Header Mail Train Runs Into the Rear of Freight in Tunnel in Ohio.

Steubenville, Ohio, September 25.—Two men are known to have lost their lives shortly before noon today when a Pennsylvania railroad mail train, No. 11, westbound from New York to St. Louis, crashed into the rear end of a freight train in the Gould tunnel, six miles west of here. The mail train was drawn by two engines and Michael Birch, engineer on the front engine, was one of those killed. The other was Oliver Schupp, of Dennison, Ohio, conductor of the freight train.

An immense volume of smoke emerging from the mouth of the tunnel has made it difficult to ascertain the full extent of damage done, but according to official reports, at least one car of the mail train and both engines were overturned in the crash. Some of the members of both crews escaped through the western exit of the tunnel, none of them seriously injured.

Among those injured, only one of them believed dangerously, are Frank Whitmire, Dennison, Ohio, conductor of freight train; John Winterbottom, Pittsburgh, Pa., fireman of No. 11; T. C. Rutledge, Indianapolis, Ind., mail clerk; James McCune, Greenville, Ind., mail clerk, and Charles Griffin, Indianapolis, Ind., engineer on the mail train. Whitmire is thought to be the most seriously hurt. He was removed to a hospital at Dennison.

According to the chief engineer at Gould's station, the mail train, at its customary speed of 65 miles an hour, had just passed the tunnel when the signal was eliminated, the yellow "caution" signal was given, and slowed down. It gave it as his opinion that a defect in the mechanism of the train probably caused the failure of the stop signal being displayed.

The entire tunnel at the scene of the collision is obscured by the locomotives of the mail train on its side, and the other stands upright on its "nose." The caboose and five flat-top cars are smashed to pieces and jammed in a mass the full width of the tunnel.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS
Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors trying me, they did no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did and in a short time felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good."—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, fainting spells, or fainting spells, or spells before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

The Scientifically Built Watch —The Waltham

For nearly seventy years the Waltham organization has concentrated its vast mechanical resources to develop accuracy.

The Waltham Company makes the smallest American watch—the movement, being just the size of a dime. From this small watch up to the heavy railroad movements they put out a series of models which cannot be excelled for accuracy and beauty.

The Colonial A series is especially attractive for business men.

We have a complete line of Waltham watches and it will be a pleasure to show them.

Women Begin Fight To Remove Legal Sex Inequalities

Washington, September 25.—Women voters have begun a fight before the state and national legislatures to end the last entrenched of sex inequalities.

A constitutional amendment for removal of all political, civil and legal discriminations against women has been drafted and will be introduced October 1, as an "equal rights amendment" to the Congress in the house and Senate.

Meantime, a draft of a bill setting up the same principle has been sent to all state branches, except Wisconsin, where such a law already is in effect. The draft of the proposed amendment to the constitution reads:

"Section 1. No political, civil or legal discrimination based on sex or on account of marriage shall exist, with the exception of suffrage, holding office, government or local office; eligibility to examination for any position affected by civil service regulations, residence and name; jury service; acquiring, controlling, holding and conveying property, ownership and control of earnings; care and custody of children, whether legitimate or illegitimate, care of children; acting as executors or administrators of estates of decedents; grounds for divorce; protection of minors; immunities or penalties for sex offenses; quarantine, examination and treatment of disease, and in all other respects."

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR DIES AT HOME IN GAINESVILLE

Gainesville, Ga., September 25.—(Special)—Captain Frank S. Barrett, a distinguished confederate veteran, died at his home here last night after a week's illness. He was 86 years of age. He had an eventful career in the war of the sixties as commander of a torpedo vessel in Mobile Bay, and was successful in his enemy's supply ships that a large reward was offered for his capture dead or alive. He was twice wounded in battle, once severely, and the other time by driving an assumed name.

Captain Barrett was a gentle man and a very old gentleman, loved by all our people. He is survived by three sons and two daughters, E. L. and N. Barrett of Atlanta; Mrs. S. Barrett of Newcross; Mrs. Clifford Liddell of Greensboro, and Mrs. J. T. Chamberlain of this city.

"The funeral was held at the home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the burial services were conducted at Woodlawn cemetery by Rev. T. R. Kendall and Rev. E. P. Campbell.

NEW REGULATORS FOR GAS PRESSURE IN SERVICE TODAY

To insure even gas pressure in West End and the surrounding districts, five new gas pressure regulators will be put in service in this district today. The announcement made by R. C. Congdon, manager of the gas department of the Georgia Railway and Power company.

During the past week excellent results have been obtained on actual operation of these regulators which were designed to insure even gas pressure throughout a district, particularly in cold weather, when the gas pressure would tend to fluctuate with the increased use of gas. The regulators were installed in West End during the past summer.

Even pressure in gas service depends largely on the proximity of gas consumers to pressure governors and regulators. But the new regulators, or governors, so that their use is equivalent to the establishment of a gas pressure regulator. Regulators will also be placed before winter on the mains in the Ansley Park, Peachtree road and Dumb Hills districts.

These regulators and the new gas "pushers" at the generating plant are part of the new gas pressure system which has been installed to assure constant and even gas service to gas subscribers in all parts of the city.

Funeral services will be held on Friday and burial will be in the same cemetery in Baltimore in which her husband is buried.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR DUBLIN FAIR

Publin, Ga., September 25.—(Special)—Plans are practically complete for the biggest fair ever held in Dublin and which will hold sway from October 1 to 15. Requests for space for various exhibits from all the counties in the district are arriving daily and the fair management expects that the Dublin fair will be the first time in this nature for the fair association.

During the past year the Atlanta Gas company has already expended for new construction over $100,000. For the year to come nearly $400,000 will have been spent in new work.

Compound, which I did in a short time felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good."—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, fainting spells, or spells before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION DENOUNCES DRY LAW

St. Louis, September 25.—The Independent Medical association, in convention here yesterday, adopted a resolution favoring beer of 2% per cent alcohol content, and denouncing the dry law.

The resolution asserted the association was "convinced of the necessity of properly brewed lager beers in the treatment of patients," and that beer of 2% per cent alcohol content would be "admirably adapted as a substitute for stronger alcoholic drinks not consumed by our people in large quantities."

The Volstead law, the resolution declared, "restricts medical practice and the liberties of the physician, and compels the physician to be a go-between between his patient and the saloon."

Ten Reasons To Be Glad

Roger W. Babson, writing in "Forbes" Magazine, gives the following as his ten reasons for optimism:

"(1) The great mass of people in this country still have their liberty bonds. It is true that corporations and many small holders have sold theirs. The great bulk of wage workers, however, still retain theirs and they will not cease buying merchandise so long as they hold liberty bonds.

"(2) Prohibition is a great factor for prosperity, the importance of which is not fully realized. Previous to July, 1919, about $3,000,000,000 a year was being spent by people of this country for drink.

About 20 per cent of this money has gone into the savings banks; but the balance has gone into building homes, buying merchandise—raising the standard of living.

"(3) The federal reserve system is working well. It is popular to criticize the federal reserve board; but such criticism is usually directed against their lax ones.

"(4) Advertising has become a great economic factor for the producing and steadyng of business. The old form of advertising, which was largely of the luxury type, has been replaced by a new, productive form.

"(5) Though our foreign trade has greatly grown during the past five years, it is no greater proportion of our total trade than it ever was. If we lost all our export trade today, it would reduce our total business only about 5 per cent.

"(6) Standardization in manufacturing is rapidly increasing, but great improvement can still be made. The Ford system can be applied to a great many commodities other than automobiles.

"(7) The reasonable fluctuations in industry and commerce are being gradually ironed out. Part of the loss through seasonable manufacturing and purchasing is being eliminated by concerns taking on different lines. Thus, the coal merchant is going into the ice business and vice versa.

"(8) Taxation will surely be reduced. Not only will the government reduce expenditures, but our system of taxation will be changed so as to encourage production rather than penalize it.

"(9) Modern education for executives and employees is rapidly being introduced. Industrial education is constantly growing in scope.

"(10) The United States has accumulated great wealth during the past five years, and has paid almost all of its foreign indebtedness. We are now a creditor nation instead of a debtor nation. Our people are the richest of any on the face of the earth."

GET TO WORK

We have reached the limit of low prices, unless all signs fail and are likely to see many prices advance. The man who wants to build, whether it be a chicken coop or a garage, a dwelling or a hotel or an office structure, can, hence, now is the time to begin work. Now is the time to put all your pessimism out of your mind for every man who has red blood in his veins to go ahead and do things. Time for the buyer to begin to stock up. Time for the manufacturer to begin to make and supply all the articles he can for every man who has red blood in his veins to go ahead and do things. Time for the buyer to begin to stock up. Time for the manufacturer whose plant needs any new equipment to buy it at once and be ready for the boom when it comes. Time for pushing of all highway construction; of all municipal improvements. Time for the farmer to begin to plant his crops. Time for the housewife to can now, and there are thousands of them, at a lower cost of labor and materials than will be possible a year or two hence.

Get to work. Sing a song of optimism, and put it into practical operation. Play ball in business with the enthusiasm you root for your home team.

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might," and DO IT NOW.—Manufacturers' Record.

"When every farmer in the south shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures and disturbed by no creditor, and enslaved by no debt, shall sit and his teeming gardens, and orchards, and vineyards, and dairies and barnyards, pitching his crops in his own wisdom and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus, and selling it in his own time, and in his chosen market and not at a master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt, but does not restore his freedom—then shall be breaking the fullness of our day." —Henry W. Grady.

Decided Increase Is Looked for Soon in Flour and Feed Trade.

The Atlanta Flour and Grain company confidently expects genuine results in all its lines during the course of the next several months. Even indications point to a decided increase in the flour and feed business, say officials of the company.

"A. T. Tripod, president of the company, says: 'The business of the past several weeks, and especially for the past several days, points to an even larger volume of business for the coming month,' say officials.

With a real ability to adjust his operations with the rapidity of the changing circumstances, Morris Abelman, with his characteristic initiative, has maintained all through the so-called hard times, a position of leadership, and in the place of slowing up the facilities of the Atlanta Flour and Grain company, he has speeded up all departments.

"A. T. Tripod, president of the company, says: 'We have the first signs of better times appearing the Atlanta Flour and Grain company, following the ground floor and ready to handle the volume with genuine service, supplying distinctive products.'

The company's conditions have necessitated different methods. And with the flour business picking up, the Atlanta Flour and Grain company, after a long time, has joined with many of the leading bakers of Atlanta and vicinity several brands of Baker's flour of the highest distinction.

The Atlanta Flour and Grain company, also, directs distribution for the Atlanta Flour and Grain company, and has good results.

The Atlanta Flour and Grain company, confidently believes that the time is now that now is the psychological moment—the time to sell and the time to buy.

Rittenbaum Brothers
Conduct Big Business
On Wiping Cloths

The business of producing sanitary wiping cloths has apparently been an business that could grow very big, but a casual study of the business of Rittenbaum Bros. at 472-78 Decatur St., will convince one of the possibilities. Rittenbaum Bros. began business in a small location on Peters street several years ago. By persistent effort, by producing a meritorious commodity, it grew steadily along, until now these brothers own their own buildings and do their own work, and are equipped with an up-to-date laundry for washing wiping cloths.

These cloths are handled with the same care and go through the same process as clothes are handled in a laundry, and when their wiping cloths are handled in a laundry, they are graded for the trade, they are declared to be absolutely germ proof.

One well-known trade-mark: "Sunny-Better Wiping Cloths"—is used by Rittenbaum Bros. These cloths are all free of soap, hooks or other objectionable features, and are shipped over the entire south, as well as through the east.
